

Concealed Pistol License Application

You can use this form to apply for a concealed pistol license. To submit your application, you must:

- Must be at least 21 years of age.
- Take any of the following items to your local law enforcement agency:
 - A photo ID such as a valid state driver license or state ID card
 - Your permanent resident card, if you are a permanent resident alien
 - Proof of 90 day consecutive days of residency in Washington State
- Pay the non-refundable $50.75 fee in cash or check or money order made payable to your law enforcement agency.
- Allow law enforcement to conduct a background check by signing and submitting your application when you are asked to do so. The background check will usually be completed within 30 days from the date you apply.
- Get fingerprinted by your law enforcement agency.

Notice

State law makes it unlawful for you to possess and purchase a firearm or concealed pistol license if you have been convicted in any court for domestic violence on or after July 1, 1993.

Domestic violence assault conviction

Conviction date	Is possession of a firearm allowed?	Is possession of a concealed pistol license allowed?
Prior to July 1, 1993 felony conviction	No	No
Prior to July 1, 1993 non-felony conviction	Yes	Yes
After July 1, 1993 felony conviction	No	No
After July 1, 1993 non-felony conviction	No	No

A person is not considered convicted if he or she has received a pardon or has had his or her firearms rights restored by the appropriate court. This does not include certificates of rehabilitation issued by Washington courts.

Although state and local laws do not differ, federal law and state law on the possession of firearms may differ. You may be prosecuted in federal court if you are prohibited by federal law from possession of a firearm. A state license is not a defense to a federal prosecution.

The application fees for a concealed pistol license are non-refundable. If you are not sure you are eligible to possess a firearm, we encourage you to contact an attorney before submitting an application for a concealed pistol license.

I have read and fully understand this notice.

Prohibitive crimes

Local laws and ordinances on firearms are preempted by state laws and must be consistent with state law. Although state and local laws do not differ, federal law and state law on the possession of firearms differ. If you are prohibited by federal law from possession of a firearm, you may be prosecuted in federal court. A state license is not a defense to a federal prosecution.

Washington State prohibitive crimes

- Conviction or adjudication for any felony offense in this state or elsewhere. "Felony" means any felony offense under the laws of this state or any federal or out-of-state offence comparable to a felony offense under the laws of this state.
- Any of the following crimes when committed by one family or household member against another, committed on or after July 1, 1993:
 - Assault in the fourth degree
 - Coercion
 - Stalking
 - Reckless endangerment
 - Criminal trespass in the first degree
 - Violation of the provisions of a protection order or no-contact order restraining the person or excluding the person from a residence

Federal law prohibits the following person from receiving a concealed pistol license and/or a firearm:

- anyone who is an unlawful user of, or is addicted to, narcotics or other controlled substances
- anyone who is of unsound mind, is adjudicated as mentally defective, or who has been committed to a mental institution
- anyone who has been dishonorably discharged from the Armed Forces
- anyone who is an alien and is in the U.S. illegally or unlawfully
- anyone who has renounced his or her U.S. citizenship
- anyone convicted of, or under indictment/information for, a felony crime punishable by imprisonment for a term that is longer than one year, if the law of the state of conviction bars possession of a firearm
- anyone who is a fugitive from justice
